* - International Agents shall be engaged as clients of McNees Wallace & Nurick. Any related engagement of McNees by the International Agent's client must be approved by McNees and documented in writing through a separate engagement letter. Fees recited do not include Official Fees which are paid to the United States Patent Office. Current Official United States Patent Office Fees are available at www.uspto.gov/about/offices/cfo/finance/fees.jsp and may change without notice.

- Assumes that International Agents will provide claim amendments and/or detailed substantive arguments.

^ - McNees does not undertake responsibility for monitoring or payment of maintenance fees, which are the exclusive responsibility of the International Agent or its client, including engagement of any designated fee service provider where applicable.

ADDITIONAL DISCLAIMERS/LIMITATIONS:

A 25% surcharge may be added in the event that services are requested within 5 business days of any non-extendible due date and a 50% surcharge may be added in the event that services are requested within 2 business days of any non-extendible due date. Instructions received within 2 business days of an extendible due date will be deemed to authorize an extension of time and payment of the corresponding official fee. Advanced deposits may be requested under special circumstances. Fees for tasks not listed on fee schedule can be undertaken on an hourly basis or on a negotiated flat fee on a case-by-case basis. The fixed fees reflected on this schedule are effective as of January 2025.
